

Row New York is a unique non-profit organization that empowers participants from under-resourced communities in New York City to build strength, gain confidence, and pursue excellence through the sport of competitive rowing.

Row New York (RNY) seeks a positive and energetic assistant coach to coach in the Scholastic Rowing Programs run by Row New York. The assistant coach will coach the Riverdale Country School Rowing Program.

The assistant coach will work out of Row New York's Peter Jay Sharp boathouse in Upper Manhattan. An excellent candidate has experience in coaching rowing and is committed to introducing the sport of rowing to the broader community.

Job Title: Community Rowing Assistant

Responsibilities:

- Recruit participants for the Rowing Program
- Coach participants a safe, inclusive, and competitive environment out of the Peter Jay Sharp boathouse
- Coordinate transportation of athletes to and from practice
- Assist in the planning of a Parent's Day during the spring season
- Help coordinate all race logistics involving participants, supporters, and equipment
- Communicate with Row New York's Director of Programs & Operations and the School's Director of Athletics weekly
- Communicate with participants via email on a regular basis
- Model positive character and leadership
- Foster strong relationships with all participants
- Forge strong relationships with families and community members
- Attend the Spring Sports Awards at the culmination of the season
- Basic maintenance and repair of equipment

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Coaching experience, with demonstrated safety record
- Preference of 3 years of collegiate or elite level rowing
- Strong references
- Clean driver's license

Compensation and Schedule:

This staff position is a part time position for the season (early March to mid-May) and compensation is very competitive.

The Riverdale Country Day School schedule consists of weekday afternoon practices from 4:15-6:15pm and Saturday practices from 12pm-2pm. In addition to practices, Riverdale will attend three regattas on the weekends.

To apply, please email jennie@rownnewyork.org with the following documents:

- Resume
- Cover letter
- Three references